
8. Paul goes to Rome

Acts 21:17-28-31

1. Paul returns to Jerusalem to share the Gospel with the Jews. Read the following passages and describe the Jew's response to the Gospel message
Acts 21:27-31

Acts 22:22

Acts 23:12-13

Acts 24:2-9

Acts 25:3
2. When Paul arrives in Rome, he summons the local Jewish officials to explain his case before them. He tells them he has done nothing of offence to them. Describe their response to his plea.
Acts 28:21-22
3. The Jews in Rome did not want to kill Paul, but they still did not all respond to the Gospel when Paul shared it. Describe the response that the Gospel received when Paul shared it with the Jews in Rome
Acts 28:24-25
4. Paul's life took many different turns along the way. He started as a promising Jewish Pharisee, after his conversion was a church planter and missionary, then after Jerusalem he was a prisoner. Read the following passage and describe Paul's response to his different circumstances in life.

Philippians 4:11-13
5. Paul was imprisoned for years because of his sharing of the Gospel. God promised that He would go to Rome (Acts 23:11), but required that Paul remain in prison for years before this was accomplished. Read the following passage and describe one of the reasons that God's plan does not always come at the speed and pace that we would like to see it.

II Peter 3:8-9
